

Evaluate a chromatography resin of your choice

Try before you buy and get a discount on affinity and polish resins

Find your perfect resin match with our extensive portfolio of chromatography resins, designed to streamline and simplify your purification selection process. Request a sample of any Thermo Scientific™ purification resin for your workflow and receive:*

- A product sample for evaluation
- Application support to help you optimize the use of Thermo Scientific™ CaptureSelect™ and POROS™ chromatography resins in your process
- A 25% discount on up to 5 L affinity resin and up to 25 L polish resin

* Participation is limited to researchers and purchasing personnel working in the life science industry in the US (excluding Puerto Rico), Canada, South America, Europe, the Middle East, and Africa who are 21 years of age or older, who request and evaluate a sample for a new molecule or workflow by December 31, 2026, and who subsequently place a qualified order requesting the discount with a Thermo Fisher Scientific technical sales specialist within 6 months of sample shipment. Sample sizes are available in 25 mL and 50 mL Thermo Scientific™ POROS™ GoPure™ Column, Thermo Scientific™ CaptureSelect™ RoboColumn™ columns, Thermo Scientific™ POROS™ RoboColumn™ columns, Thermo Scientific™ MabCaptureC™ RoboColumn™ columns, and Thermo Scientific™ POROS™ GoPure™ 96-well screening plate formats. Limit one sample of each type per customer. Customer must include a unique identifier connected to samples and agree to evaluate the sample before placing an order to receive the discounted price on their next order. Customers can use the discount only once per type. Discount applies only to affinity resins up to 5 L and/or polish resins up to 25 L. Other items in an order are not eligible for discount. Discount applies to the list price in effect at the time the order is received by Thermo Fisher Scientific. Offer terms, including end date of promotion, may be changed by Thermo Fisher Scientific without prior or further notice. Cannot be combined with other discounts or promotions. Health care professionals and government officials may not participate in this promotion. By requesting a sample, you warrant that you are not prohibited by employment, contract, or law from accepting a sample. Offer void where prohibited, licensed, or restricted by federal, state, provincial, or local laws or regulation or agency/institutional policy. Other restrictions may apply.
